COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Executive Diploma in Hospitality Management is a one-year program that gives learners a thorough understanding of front desk operations, guest services, housekeeping and the other departments that keep a hotel running smoothly. It is designed for anyone interested in hotel and hospitality operations who wants to move into supervisory or managerial roles.

Students study the essentials of management, an introduction to hospitality management, HR in hospitality, front office operations, hospitality communication, and event hospitality, law and permissions. The program focuses on practical, readily applicable management techniques that help professionals deliver a high standard of service to guests, opening opportunities in hotels, resorts, event companies, cruise lines, airlines and corporate guest relations.
