COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Advanced Diploma in Travel and Tourism is a two-year program that opens the door to a wide range of careers in one of the world's most dynamic industries. It combines a strong foundation in management, including principles of management, business communication, human resource management and marketing, with core tourism knowledge such as travel and tourism operations and the geography of travel.

In the second year, students study hospitality management, managerial economics, the tourism industry, tourism management, quality management in tourism and event management. Graduates can pursue roles in travel agencies, tour operations, destination development, hotels and resorts, airlines and event companies, or go on to specialise in areas such as tourism management and tourism entrepreneurship. The program suits fresh learners, working professionals looking to advance their careers, and those planning to start their own travel business.
