COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Diploma in Business Administration is a one-year program that gives students and working professionals a solid, practical grounding in how businesses are managed. It covers the essentials of management, principles of management, managerial economics, business communication and marketing management, followed by a specialization in an area that matches the learner's career goals.

The program is designed for those who want to kick-start a career in management or move into supervisory and managerial roles in their current jobs. It builds skills in planning, decision-making, communication and customer handling, opening opportunities in sales, marketing, business development, banking, finance, operations and supply chain functions. It also provides a strong base for further studies in business and management.
