Course Description

The Bachelor Program in Arts – English builds a deep understanding of the English language and its literature, along with the context and theoretical frameworks needed to read it critically. The course progresses chronologically through the major periods of English literature and writing, from its history and the Shakespearean era to modern fiction and media.

Students explore poetry, prose, drama, fiction and novels, Indian writing in English and in translation, literary criticism, linguistics and phonetics. Alongside literature, the programme strengthens practical language skills – essay and letter writing, idioms and phrases, grammar, business communication and English for the media.
